An IDP internship is a unique opportunity for passionate, political-minded people of all backgrounds to gain real life hands-on experience in Democratic politics and organizing.

Requirements/Skills

- Self-directed and proactive
- Good communication skills, both written and oral
- Good organizational and time management skills
- Strong people skills and ability to work in a team environment
- Able to commit to 20 hours a week

IDP interns work out of our Des Moines Headquarters; one position can be based anywhere in Iowa and will work remotely with our Organizing Director.

These are unpaid positions, but the IDP will work with students and their university to apply internship toward college credit if possible. IDP will help students build the skills they seek in an internship and provide valuable feedback on their experience.
