

The Iowa Democratic Party is looking for enthusiastic, hard-working future leaders for our Fellowship and internship programs.

An IDP internship is a unique opportunity for passionate, political-minded people of all backgrounds to gain real life, hands-on experience in Democratic politics and organizing.

Iowa Democratic Party Internship

Interns will assist with a broad range of projects, including organizing, communications, finance, politics, operations, and data/technology. It is possible for an intern to specialize in a specific area of interest; please specify when applying. Internships are an opportunity to try out different aspects of a career in politics and are unpaid. The IDP can work with colleges and universities for school credit when applicable.

The following are the internship opportunities:

- General internships based out of our Des Moines headquarters
- Interns who are not based in Des Moines can work from anywhere in Iowa directly with a member of the Organizing department.

Fellowships and Internships

Fellows and most interns will work out of our Des Moines headquarters and will be responsible for reception duties while they are working.

Requirements/Skills:

- Self-directed and proactive
- Good communication skills, both written and oral
- Good organizational and time management skills
- Strong people skills and ability to work in a team environment
- Able to commit to a regular part-time schedule

The IDP will help students build the skills they seek and provide valuable feedback on their experience.
