This new position will report to the Party Affairs Director and will work with a wide variety of stakeholders including other IDP departments, our Constituency Caucus Chairs, and partner organization leaders.

Duties Include:

- Create and implement a comprehensive constituency outreach and engagement plan that includes coordinating with partner groups prioritizing voter registration
- Build coalitions and strategic partnerships with allied organizations to strengthen relationships with the IDP and to collaborate on community organizing opportunities
- Work with IDP staff and Constituency Caucus Chairs to strengthen party relationships and outreach and to promote and provide Party resources to constituencies
- Plan and participate in voter contact activities, trainings, local meetings, and other activities that build presence in constituencies across the state and increase engagement with the Party

Minimum Qualifications:

- At least two cycles or two years of experience in grassroots community organizing or field organizing,
- Excellent writing, analytical, and public speaking skills
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, high-pressure environment,
- Comfortable working in a team environment while also self-motivated and able to meet goals,
- Computer proficiency and knowledge of Votebuilder preferred
- Statewide travel is required
