

Salary Range: $3,500 - $4,100

Organizer:

Organizers lead the coordinated campaign's voter turnout and volunteer recruitment efforts, serving as the face of national, statewide, and local candidates in communities across the state. Iowa's 2020 Coordinated Campaign includes a targeted U.S. Senate race to defeat Joni Ernst, four competitive congressional races, opportunities to flip control in the Iowa legislature, and elect Democrats at the local level in all of Iowa's 99 counties. This is a general election position through November 15 and reports to a Regional Organizing Director.

Responsibilities Include:

- Recruit, train and manage volunteers to build a volunteer organization to turn out voters
- Plan and manage direct voter contact activities and volunteer meetings and trainings that account for a remote COVID-19 environment
- Strategically organize diverse communities and engage first time volunteers and voters
- Build and maintain online communities of volunteers and voters
- Amplify the campaign's message, online and offline
- Build a campaign organization in assigned turf or region that reflects the broader community

Minimum Qualifications:

- Exceptionally well organized and proactive, with the ability to meet strict deadlines
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Strong interpersonal skills and ability to communicate with people from different backgrounds to manage and supervise volunteer teams
- Disciplined and solution-oriented approach to all tasks
- Commitment to honesty and personal integrity
- Access to a vehicle, as well as a valid driver's license
- Must be passionate about electing all Democrats on the ballot
